PENTECOST SUNDAY, solemnity.

The fifty days of the sacred time of Easter conclude with Pentecost Sunday, when the Church recalls the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles, the beginnings of the Church, and the start of her mission to all tongues and peoples and nations.

It is fitting that the Vigil Mass of Pentecost be celebrated in a more ample form, using the readings and prayers to be found in the liturgical books. This Mass, however, unlike the Easter Vigil, does not have a baptismal character, but instead is a celebration of more intense prayer, after the example of the Apostles and the disciples, who together with Mary the Mother of Jesus were one in persevering prayer, as they awaited the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

After Pentecost Sunday the paschal candle is kept with honour in the baptistery, so that from its flame the candles of the baptized may be lit during their baptism. At funerals the paschal candle should be placed near the bier, to signify that Christian death is a true Pasch.

Outside Easter Time the paschal candle should not be kept in the sanctuary nor should it be lit.

As from tomorrow the recitation of the Angelus (The Angel of the Lord ...) resumes.
